

TYPES OF STUDENTS AT PTW

My Child Does it Because They Love it!

Holly Palker, PTW Parent

"If I had to share something special about PTW, I would say my daughter gets such pleasure and joy from performing and being here and she really does consider it like a second home. It's just a happy place for her."

Holly Palker, PTW Parent

"Olivia feels very at home here. She feels that she's made friends. She feels like she could talk to anyone, the teachers, the owners, if she has a problem."

Zeynep Allyn, PTW Parent

"Whether they're gonna be stars one day or whether their doing this for fun, it doesn't matter. The bottom line is they're having a great time. You know, it's become a family for us too, so we love it here. He loves everything about the school. I keep raving about it to all my friends to keep doing it."

Gary Mau, Broadway star (Phantom in "Phantom of the Opera" on Broadway) & PTW Parent

"We discovered PTW many years ago when we were still traveling and doing a lot of things, we couldn't commit to a full program but my daughter just took a single dance class and she loved it."

Victoria Atwater Reed, Professional
Opera/Concert singer & PTW Parent

"It's great if you want to become a professional but you don't have to do that. We never ever push her as professionals ourselves. The fact that she just loves it so much... It's hard to put into words as a parent just how much that warms your heart. It just warms your heart in such a way, you can't even express how wonderful makes you feel, you're just glowing it, thinking to yourself, oh my gosh, this is great. This is what we wanted for our child."
