

TYPES OF STUDENTS AT PTW

I'm Looking for a Positive Peer Group for my Child

Gary Mau, Broadway star (Phantom in "Phantom of the Opera" on Broadway) & PTW Parent

"Well, I do know that one of the most valuable things here is the camaraderie among the students. And there's such a great support group just in their peers, the group of friends remains so strong. The support between the kids is an amazing thing at this school."

Diane Lilli, Writer & PTW Parent

"There's no comparison between how you're treated in the regular world, which is full of fear and full of uncertainty nowadays, and how you're treated at PTW. There's no bullying here. It's a welcoming place. It feels like you getting hugged every time you come in here. I would hear it all the time from my son. When you're here, you're accepted, no matter who you are, no matter what level you are."

Carly M., PTW Student

"My first day at PTW, I still remember it, I was 11. I came into camp and there were all these older kids and I was like, 'I'm not gonna talk to anybody.' But by the end of the day, I'd already made friends, I'd spoken probably more than I had in my entire life in that one day."

Jeslyn Z., PTW Student

"It was so amazing. All the teachers are outgoing and all the students were outgoing. I made so many new friends in such a short amount of time. In just three weeks, I learned so many things I'm gonna use for many, many, many years. It was amazing and I can't wait to come here again."

Nicole Turon-Diaz, Behavior Analyst & PTW Parent
Christopher Diaz, Attorney & PTW Parent

"Lily tends to be a shy child, but when she comes to PTW she lights up. She's made so many friends. She's really realizing her potential and her gift, she absolutely loves it, and the New York shows are awesome."
