

TOP REASONS TO CHOOSE PTW

Reason #3 - Our Supportive, Non-Competitive Environment that Builds Self-Esteem and Lasting Friendships

Jessica H., PTW Student

"You'd think that with an acting school there would be a lot of competition, but I was really surprised when I came here. Everyone is just so close and you all work together and you really, really honestly help each other."

Holly H., PTW Student

"I could sing and I could kind of dance, but when I came to PTW, it gave me lots of techniques and it also gave me the confidence to be able to be comfortable in my own voice. When I went to another audition, they would say "OK, sing for us" and I'm like, "OK, great, I'm going to show you!"

Jill Z., PTW Alumna

"The non-competitive atmosphere at PTW really helped so I was comfortable being here and actually performing in front of people instead of having that crazy stage fright."

Diane Lilli, Writer and PTW Parent

"I think if you choose another school, the biggest problem is you'll just be a number. At PTW, you are never a number."

Jeffrey Greenberg, Executive & PTW Parent

"High school is a very turbulent time for kids, and PTW is a very safe haven."

Diane Lilli, Writer and PTW Parent

"When my son first got here, he didn't have the confidence to be onstage or to even speak publicly. And within I say, two or three years, he was unstoppable."

Ben S., PTW Student

"I went here and I was really shy because I didn't know anybody. That day, the first day I came here, I made so many friends."

Victoria Atwater Reed, Professional Opera/Concert Singer & PTW Parent

"It's a loving, nurturing environment. It's all positive, yet hard work too. It's not just glitz without the real deal underneath."

Meryl Levenberg, PTW Parent

"Their child is just gonna be in such a warm, nurturing environment. You can't put a value on that, as far as I'm concerned."

Gary Mau, (Phantom, in "Phantom of the Opera" on Broadway) & PTW Parent

"Especially as a professional, I recognize the need for a solid support group. Here at PTW, you feel so supported as an artist, and you can do anything when you feel that support."
